June's Coming by John Burroughs

Now have come the shining days
When field and wood are robed anew,
And o'er the world a silver haze
Mingles the emerald with the blue.

Summer now doth clothe the land
In garments free from spot or stain--
The lustrous leaves, the hills untanned,
The vivid meads, the glaucous grain.

The day looks new, a coin unworn,
Freshly stamped in heavenly mint:
The sky keeps on its look of morn;
Of age and death there is no hint.

How soft the landscape near and far!
A shining veil the trees infold;
The day remembers moon and star;
A silver lining hath its gold.

Again I see the clover bloom,
And wade in grasses lush and sweet;
Again has vanished all my gloom
With daisies smiling at my feet.

Again from out the garden hives
The exodus of frenzied bees;
The humming cyclone onward drives,
Or finds repose amid the trees.

At dawn the river seems a shade--
A liquid shadow deep as space;
But when the sun the mist has laid,
A diamond shower smites its face.

The season's tide now nears its height,
And gives to earth an aspect new;
Now every shoal is hid from sight,
With current fresh as morning dew.

June 1st, 1926: Marilyn Monroe was born in Los Angeles (as Norma Jean Mortensen). Following an unstable childhood spent in foster homes and orphanages, she landed a job as a model which led to a movie career.

JUNE 5th, 1783: The first sustained flight occurred as a hot-air balloon was launched at Annonay, France, by brothers Joseph and Jacques Montgolfier. Their 33-foot-diameter globe aerostatique ascended about 6,000 feet. In September, they repeated the experiment for King Louis XVI, using a sheep, rooster and duck as the balloon's passengers.

June 6th, 1872: Pioneering feminist Susan B. Anthony was fined for voting in a presidential election at Rochester, New York. She led a group of women that voted illegally, to test their status as citizens. In August of 1920, the 19th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution was finally ratified, allowing women to vote.

June 12th, 1929: Anne Frank was born in Frankfurt, Germany. She is perhaps the best known victim of the Nazi Holocaust. Anne and her family moved from Germany to Amsterdam to flee Nazi persecution, then went into hiding in a small attic after Holland was invaded by Nazis. Anne, a girl on the verge of womanhood, was unable to go outside for any reason. In 1942, she began a diary to cope with the boredom, fear, annoyances, and loneliness of captivity. Her family's hiding place was eventually discovered and Anne and her family were deported to Nazi concentration camps. She contracted typhus and died at Bergen-Belsen in 1945. After the war, her father published her diary, which inspired the world, revealing a young woman who had managed to remain hopeful, despite it all.

MEDITATION MOMENT

By Beverly

Pg. 4

HOW PRECIOUS IS YOUR WORD

O Lord, how precious is your Word

It has never failed me.

It strengthens me in weakness.

It helps me stand in faith,

And when I cannot find my way

It always lights my path.

Your Word upholds me and gives me hope,

When shattered lives surround me,

It heals my broken heart.

It gives me courage and guidance,

And when temptations assail me,

Its truth reveals a way of escape.

Your word assures me of forgiveness,

When I falter—it restores me.

It sustains and undergirds me,

It comforts me in grief.

It's the food that feeds my soul.

O Lord, how precious is your Word!

"The entrance of your words gives light;
It gives understanding to the simple."

Psalm 119:130

MY PORTION

O Lord, you are my portion
Your love fills all the earth;
Your riches my inheritance,
Received at my new birth.

For it was then that I believed
In Calvary's work for me,
And understood that on the cross
You died to set me free.

And now you are my portion
To live from day to day;
You chart the course that's up ahead,
Forgive me when I stray.

You've given me your precious Word,
Your promises to claim;
A refuge in my darkest hour,
A hiding place—your Name.

Come now, examine all my ways
By your own Word, not man's;
That I might follow after you,
Fulfilling your commands.

And as I come to seek your face,
Be gracious unto me;
Take me deeper in your Word—
Enlarge my place in thee.

For with you as my portion
I know that I can face
All the circumstances of my life,
While held in your embrace.

So teach me, Lord, to rest in you,
Content to ere abide;
In your love that fills the earth
My portion to provide.

STOP WRESTLING WITH
GOD'S WORD
AND
START STANDING ON IT!

THE BIBLE WASN'T WRITTEN
TO TELL HOW THE HEAVENS GO,
BUT HOW TO GET TO HEAVEN!

The first week of June signals that I have been here one year as your chaplain. It has been a joy and a blessing for me to be serving the Lord and you dear friends here at Grace Brethren Village. I hope there will be many good things in store for us all in the coming days.

June is an exciting month for many as school teachers get a much needed rest, children get a change from the school routine, vacations get underway and folks with gardens or who wish they had gardens get outdoors and enjoy fresh air. King's Island is back in full swing as are many amusement parks across the nation making us seniors thankful NOT to be on those fearful rides. We are on enough of a ride with its twists and turns, jolts and dark corners, head jerks and sudden stops. Aging does have both blessings and bothers, joys and jolts.

The writer of Ecclesiastes, Solomon, spoke about the senior experience in painfully accurate words seen in chapter 12.

“Remember now your Creator in the days of your youth, before the difficult days come, and the years draw near when you say, I have no pleasure in them;...In the day when the keepers of the house tremble, and the strong men bow down, (our arms and backs) when the grinders cease because they are few (our teeth), and those that look through the windows grow dim (our eyesight); when the doors are shut in the streets, and the sound of grinding is low (our hearing), when one rises up at the sound of a bird,...they are afraid of height, and of terrors in the way.” Wow, Solomon, way to slap us upside the head.

Actually, I needed that reminder. I can either whine and pine and make people around me sad or I can find reason to thank God and rejoice. What will you choose? Let's enjoy June and the days we have to lift up the fallen and depressed, and to praise the Lord.

~Chaplain Dave

Where did June get its name?

“June is named after the ancient Roman goddess Juno, wife of Jupiter and goddess of marriage and childbirth. June was also once sometimes known as midsummer month.”

Other events for JUNE include:

June 14th - Flag Day

- Flag Day is a day for Americans to celebrate and show respect for our flag, its designers and makers.

June 16th - Father's Day

June 19th - Juneteenth

- Juneteenth celebrates and symbolizes the end of slavery in the United States. Although President Abraham Lincoln issued the Emancipation Proclamation on September 22, 1862, it was not until June 19, 1865 that all slaves were finally freed. Nearly 3 years later!
